STATE TROOPER INJURED

On November 9th, 2004 at approximately 7:30 A.M. a Connecticut State Trooper was injured while taking a subject into custody in front the Diamond Deli located in Norwalk, CT.

Trooper David FEBBRAIO who is assigned to Troop "G" Bridgeport was injured while taking a Norwalk man named William CYRTA into custody after CYRTA caused a disturbance in and in front of the Diamond Deli located on New Canaan Avenue, in Norwalk.

Trooper FEBBRAIO was on duty and in uniform and a patron of the deli when William CYRTA entered the deli and began causing a disturbance. CYRTA was disturbing both the patrons and employees of the deli so he was asked to leave. CYRTA left but returned again causing more of disturbance by punching a table and shouting obscenities. CYRTA was again asked to leave at which time he continued the disturbance while leaving and just outside the deli.

CYRTA was taken into custody by the State Police. CYRTA began to resist arrest. A brief struggle ensued during which Trooper FEBBRAIO sustained an injury. CYRTA was taken into custody and transported to Troop G. Trooper FEBBRAIO was transported to Norwalk Hospital for treatment for his non-life threatening injury.
